We ask that all participants be considerate of their attire. Items such as tight fitting and/or revealing clothing, shorts, or sandals may be toxic for other members.

The road was up and down, smooth and rocky. Sometimes we were surrounded by beautiful vistas, at others, we were in a fog and saw nothing but the placing of one foot in front of the other as we trudged ahead... But we found that once on this road, something deep within us told us it was the right path for us. We simply knew it. and that was enough to keep us going. Whatever our experience, we found it to be the greatest adventure of our lives (White Book p. 78).
